

Energy Management System Policy

In accordance with Tüpraş Energy Management System, the policies are determined

- In the oil sector, enviable performance, environment and life respects the values of a pioneer company to be the target of all operating in adopting EU norms, the environment and human health laws compliant, to get low cost quality products
- In Energy management, to minimize the carbon footprint of environmental protection ,
- Follow the new technologies to improve energy efficiency by making continuous improvements ,
- Resource allocation for enhancing energy efficiency projects,
- In energy efficiency, which is applicable to the company in accordance with local and international regulations work,
- Enforcing energy efficiency and conservation measures to minimize the loss of resources ,
- Purchased in products and services , new design and investments, in production and oversee all of our processes ,
- To increase energy efficiency , monitoring and reviewing on a regular basis to inform stakeholders , is committed .